

Considering applying for a start-up loan?

CONSIDERING APPLYING FOR A START-UP LOAN?

A start-up loan may be an option if you are struggling to make your dream of homeownership a reality.

Who is eligible for a start-up loan?

- If you have low income and are therefore unable to save for a down payment.
- If you have children, are renting a dwelling and need to stabilise your housing situation quickly.
- If you are receiving long-term disability benefits and do not have a down payment.

You must have sufficient income to service a mortgage long-term.

You can use a start-up loan to:

- purchase a modest dwelling suitable for long-term use
- improve and adapt your dwelling to accommodate a disability
- refinance expensive loans if you are at risk of losing the home you own

How do you apply?

You can apply online. The application is available at husbanken.no. It is the municipality that processes your application, and which you must contact if you have any questions or require assistance.

You can find more information at husbanken.no

